Journaling

KEEP A MOOD JOURNAL Keeping track of how you feel helps you to better understand your mood, determine practical ways to manage and feel better faster. How do you feel today?

Use this journaling process with your children and develop a toll box of things you can do to change your mood or theirs.

Fun things to do!!!!!!

Have a house party with your family

- Fix a health meal, have your kids help out
- A good desert
- Bottled water with colorful paper decorated around it
- Make - Name Tags, Party Hats and other decoration
- And Good music some from your kids and some of your favorites
- Games and dancing

Part of the fun is to get the family to work together to make the decorations and fix things. Make it a theme if you want and give it a title like "Celebrating Life or the end of the week."

Have FaceTime, Video Time, Zoom, Skype or conference call for birthdays or other celebrations with your family and friends.
